Tayside Health Fund is a Registered
Scottish Charity No. SCO 11042

Tayside's leading Health
Charity

Tayside Health Fund is a Registered Scottish Charity which supports NHS Tayside hospitals and services. It is supported by donations, fundraising and legacies from patients, their relatives, the general public and other organisations.

Tayside Health Fund Board of Trustees are committed to their ongoing objective to invest in and improve health services that will be most beneficial to patient care.

There are a variety of ways in which Tayside Health Fund can make a difference that include:

- Investing in major projects, such as a new unit, an extension or a facility upgrade
- Provide the opportunity for developing new pioneering ways of delivering patient care
- To provide funds in support of research projects that are supportive of NHS objectives
- Purchase of equipment which is additional to that funded by NHS Tayside in the course of normal health services
- Support improvements to the provision of patient services and facilities
- To enhance and improve the environment in which healthcare is delivered
- Education of staff by providing non-core training and educational opportunities
- Supporting innovative local community projects and patient groups
