NHS Tayside has now considered your request dated 25 April 2019.

Extract from Request

“I am interested in the information provided to prisons and other secure facilities in Scotland to ensure they are able to provide appropriate access to treatment and care to those they are responsible for with inherited bleeding disorders such as haemophilia A, haemophilia B, von Willebrands, other clotting factor deficiencies, or platelet disorders.

Specifically, what information is provided to,

a) Prisons and offender institutions including for those on remand,

b) to facilities for those detained under the mental health act, within the territory of your health board?”

Response

All registered nurses are aware of the conditions mentioned in your request and where to seek advice should someone be admitted to HMP Perth or HMP Castle Huntly with an inherited blood disorder.
